BRAINSTORMS

With Ferrin Cox

Finally winter weather has arrived to this area. We don't especially like cold weather, but feel comforted if it gets warm and no cold weather shows up on the thermometer. We know the farmers' crops profit by the cold snaps, because Hedly reports it helps control the spring bugs in the flower beds around our house.

Recycling of any kind gets support from this corner. The private companies and communities that actively support recycling of Christmas trees deserve a pat on the back for their efforts. Just doing that creates problems and expense for the sponsors. If that wasn't enough, just imagine the mind set of the nuts in Gadsden, Alabama who stole (1) 2,000 old used Christmas trees from the parking lot of a grocery store. Those same folks could have come to Elba, gotten all the used trees they wanted without stealing them, "cause we don't recycle them around here at all... but maybe stolen trees are more valuable.

Circuit Judge Terry Butts will be sworn into office as Associate Justice of the Alabama Supreme Court at 1 p.m. on Wednesday, January 18th. The ceremony will take place at the Supreme Court building in Montgomery. It is located right down the street from the Capitol... on Dexter Avenue. Sure said last week they both would welcome their local friends to the event. Don't know if they are going to feed us or not, but maybe sympathy (and food) will prevail if we stand around with a "lost calf" look on our face.

It was a relief to read that the federal courts have finally cleared the way for certification of most of the November election results. Now only two statewide races remain in the hassle. It was also interesting to us to finally get some idea of the statewide vote results on the 26 constitutional amendments.

Can you believe the continuing reports of unpaid bills coming out of the Attorney General's office? The voters found a lot of reasons to vote against incumbent Jimmy Evans, without this type news. We wonder how bad the voter reaction would have been if it had been general knowledge how he was handling the business part of his position.

There is a lot of hoopla about the Republicans now having a majority in both houses of the U. S. Congress. Frankly, we think it is just that... a lot of talk about nothing. Hopefully we are in a mode of less government, rather than more government, but it will take years to reach the grass roots. Downsizing of government programs will be fought tooth and nail by the career bureaucrats who depend on confusion and more taxes to keep their fat pay checks.

Connie Chung, the CBS news anchor, disappointed us last week. She has been one of our favorites for several years but dropped a notch or two following her quoting of Newt Gingrich's remark after suggesting she whisper her opinion, "just between you and me." President Clinton is to be commended for his reaction. There is no doubt he disliked hearing someone call his wife such a name, but when asked, Clinton said something like, "There is no telling what they could get my mother to say." We understand that completely. All this high and mighty about freedom of the press and purity of reporting all the news will be lost if us high and mighty news folks don't put ourself back in perspective with the world. Shame, shame Connie.

ALABAMA'S "PROPOSED NEW" VOTING MACHINES

FROM THE HOUSE.

Congressman Terry Everett

Welcoming Washington to the Real World

A little magic could be felt in the air in Washington last week. At the stroke of Noon on Wednesday, January fourth, the "people's House" was transformed from a once irrelevant phrase into reality.

The U.S. House of Representatives, under the watchful and optimistic eyes of the nation, was resolutely thrust into the real world.

The historic 14-hour Congressional voting session which followed the swearing-in of the new 104th Congress last week was astonishingly productive.

Old House rules were falling so fast it was hard to keep up. My offices received calls from elected citizens who stood fast until the close hours of Thursday morning watching C-SPAN and seeing the reforms.

Because there may be some people who didn't get to see in here is the best list I could find of what your new House of Representatives passed on January fourth.

Passed by the House: House committees reduced by one-third; CBO required to use truthful budget numbers, comparing proposed budgets to what was actually spent last year instead of artificial baseline figures which account for inflation and workload changes; Term limits set for the Speaker, committee chairman and subcommittee chairman; Proxy voting banned in committees and subcommittees; Committee and subcommittee proceedings opened to the public and the media; A three-fifths majority House vote required before income tax rate increases; and the Inspector General authorized to conduct a comprehensive, independent

We get letters.....

To The Editor:

I would like to respond to the letter that was published in last week's Elba Clipper from Mrs. Carolyn Hudson.

On October 30, Mrs. Hudson came into the video store to rent a movie. When she had selected a movie, she came to the counter and was asked by one of the part-time girls what her phone number was, it was found that she did not have a membership under the name of Hudson. The girl told her this and asked for the identification that is necessary to open an account. This consisted of a driver's license only, since she had an Elba address on her license. No other information was necessary. As we all know, our place of employment is not located on our driver's license, so we did not have any place of employment listed, as Mrs. Hudson stated in her letter. We have never had to have a place of employment unless we have to verify these records when there is an out of town address on the driver's license. Under these circumstances there could be a three day waiting period while this information is verified, but in this case, the driver's license was all that was necessary. The only information that was needed to open up her account. The last four digits of the phone number and the first initial of your last name are always used as your membership number.

Normally, after three days we begin an effort to contact anyone who has a late movie, in case they have forgotten that they had rented a movie. This is exactly what happened in this instance. I tried to contact Mrs. Hudson several times every week, checked with the company and since I normally work mornings, found that their policy is no personal time is the time that I make these calls except in case of an emergency call. Dawna Jurasek, the manager, and they will take NO calls or messages from Carolyn Hudson on his cell phone, but he would be happy to contact her at other times of the day.

Neither one of us ever got an answer of no other way to have handled the movie. We attempted to contact Carolyn contacted Mr. Hudson and was Mrs. Hudson on numerous occasions told him that she did have the movie, even though it is not our review and that he would remind her to possibly make these attempts. return it. At this point, we still had the movie being held out after her due date. When Mrs. Hudson came into the video store on December 20, I realized that late charges have to be paid that she was the mother of one from being held out after her due date. This is the only way we have has a different last name from Mrs. Hudson and I did not know or recognize the last name of Hudson because I had always associated her with her son's last name, Dawna.

We close thanking all of our valued customers for their support and understanding on how our policies have always worked in the past and will continue to work in the future.

Sincerely,

American Red Cross Blood Drives planned in Enterprise

Start the new year by giving someone the gift of life. In an effort to prevent additional blood shortages during the month of January, the American Red Cross is encouraging all healthy individuals to give the gift of life at one of the blood drives listed below.

Wednesday, January 18, from 12:00 p.m. until 1:00 p.m. in the Student Center at Enterprise State Junior College.

Saturday, January 21, from 2:00 p.m. until 5:30 p.m. at Wal-Mart located at 600 Bollweevil Circle in Enterprise.

Blood usage increases dramatically at the start of the new year.

Many people who postponed hospitalization during the holiday season must now schedule needed surgery. It's important to keep the area's blood supply at a safe level for family, friends and neighbors who need it.

Your blood donation can help more than one patient. Whole blood can be used to replace blood lost by patients who are suffering from massive bleeding. Blood can also be separated into components that are then used individually such as plasma, platelets, white blood cells and red blood cells. Blood and blood components help patients suffering from anemia, trauma, cancer, gastrointestinal diseases, bone diseases, lung diseases, kidney diseases, and many other health problems.

But blood is perishable. It must be used within 45 days. Some components must be used within five days. That's why the demand for blood is so high. And why blood donations are needed constantly. Take the time to help give the gift of life... donate blood.

Individuals who have not donated within the past 56 days as well as those who have never donated before are encouraged to do so during one of these drives.

For more information, call the American Red Cross at 1-800-GIVE-LIFE.

You've never met a woman with more information and good gumption than Abigail Adams. She was, president, the mother of the sixth first lady to live in the White House, an advocate of women's rights from age 17 to 70 and a self-educated lobbyist for democracy who stressed the importance of being a reader and a participating citizen. Rebecca Bloomfield uses all this lady's wit and grit to bring her to life.

When Rebecca Bloomfield was nine years old, she wrote, produced, directed and acted in her first play. She's been practicing all those crafts ever since working with people like Burgess Meredith, Phyllis Diller, Teri Garr and Anthony Michael Hall, acting in everything from Euripides and Shakespeare to Rodgers & Hammerstein and winning Emmys, Effies and a Gold Lion at the Cannes International Film Festival. ## Number your days

Psalms 90:11-12 says, "Who knoweth the power of thine anger? Even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath. So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom."

If a person's lifespan were to be 70 years, he would have lived in this world 25,550 days during his life. For a child or teenager that may seem like a large amount of time, but for those of us who are coming to consider time more precious, 25,550 is not really a large number. Without wishing to sound morbid, it is a sobering thought to realize that it is a young man (if my lifespan were to be 70 years), I have used up over half of the days allotted to me (see Psalms 90:10).

Time is extremely important. None of us is guaranteed 70 years. If the truth were known we are all living on "borrowed time." The days of our life are on loan from God himself. The psalmist, under the leadership and direction of the Holy Spirit confronted this truth in his writing.

We are warned by the Scriptures to be very careful with the days that God has graciously given us. The Lord is still a God of justice and wrath. The days of our life are given to us as an opportunity. This opportunity involves three basic facets. First of all, if God has given you another day to live, it is an opportunity to experience a personal, life-changing relationship with Him. God wants you to experience and possess His free gift of eternal life and He is very clear about how that must take place. John 17:3 says, "And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, who thou hast sent." Secondly, if God has given you another day to live, it is an opportunity to help others experience a personal life-changing relationship with Him. Acts 1:8 says, "...ye shall be witnesses unto me..." Jesus did not make witnessing an option or a gift. Witnessing is a command and of commission from the very lips of the Savior. Third, if God has given you another day to live, it is an opportunity for you to love. Who are we to love? How are we to love? Matthew 22:37-39 says, "Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. The second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." Love God and love others with everything that you've got!

Whatever you and I are going to do must be quickly. Time is running out and the justice of God awaits! Let's number our days!

???Question Corner???

by Cary Clark & Dawn Grimes

In this day and age, teenagers are often stereotyped as being ignorant of matters concerning the national government. However, Question Corner discovered that this was an unfair assumption after asking EHS students to explain how they feel about President Clinton's chances of being re-elected.

Malinda Tyson: "I don't think he will be re-elected because he has angered many people with some of the more important decisions he has made."

Jason Faulk: "No! I think the American public finally realizes that we need a president who will lift up the country instead of running it into the ground."

Richard Glover: "No, because the nation is leaning more towards the Republican party."

Rich Staudman: "No, because he is not taking the right actions toward problems that are affecting society."

Jenny Ross: "I doubt it. I think President Clinton has upset a lot of people with some of his reforms."

Tammy Knight: "I don't think President Clinton is a very good example for the American people to look up to."

Tatiana Morgan: "No, and no explanation is necessary."

Velma Whitfield: "I think there's a possibility that Clinton will be re-elected because of the recognition he's received for some of his reforms."

Charles Bowen: "No, because of a liberal attitude. The only way Clinton would be re-elected would be if his opponents were severely unworthy."

FBLA Shows Christmas Spirit

FBLA Contributes To Christmas Mission

"Don't forget your two canned goods for FBLA," could be heard for several days during December in Mrs. I. Clark's room and Mrs. M. Crawford's classes. Mrs. Clark informed each class and club member that FBLA is conducting its Fifth Annual Canned Food Drive. She stated that we would help the Elba Christian Mission Center again this year. This food drive was very successful because the club was able to donate three boxes of food to the center.

The Elba High School Future Business Leaders of America Club is proud to serve the school and the community as well. This is our way of showing that we care about our community and that we will do our part to show our support.

FBLA Sings Christmas Chorus

The EHS Future Business Leaders of America Club members wanted to spread Christmas cheer around to the Elba Nursing Home again this year, so they made Christmas greeting cards. The cards were of four different designs which depicted a Santa, a Christmas tree, a wreath, and a holly. All the cards were decorated with a Christmas border theme. Printed on the inside cover was a verse from Matthew 1:21 which stated, "And she shall bring forth a son and thou shalt call his name Jesus for he shall save his people from their sins." The FBLA emblem was placed below the verse. The right inside cover wished each recipient a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

FBLA Members Celebrate Christmas
The EHS FBLA members began their Christmas celebration early by having a Christmas party instead of a club meeting. The Christmas party was held December 14, in the school cafeteria. All members had a good time and enjoyed the party treats.

BAND NEWS

by Carrie Bradley

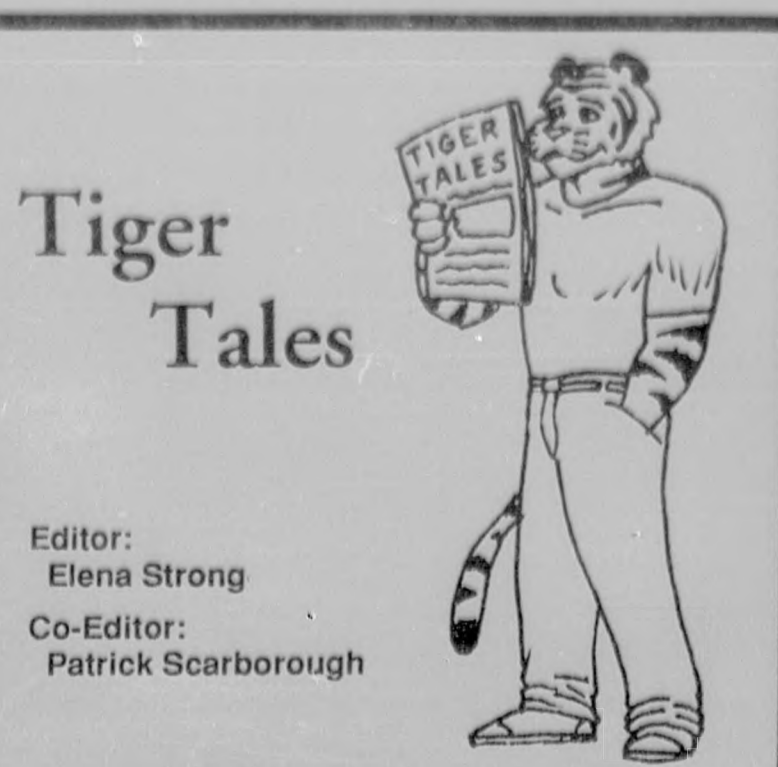

Many people believe that the band is finished for the year after football season. That is definitely not true. The most important time for the EHS Band is from January to March. This is the band's concert season. When band first began, there was only a concert band. The marching band came about later.

During concert season, the band prepares for District Contest which is held at Troy State University, where they perform several songs. Unlike a marching competition, the band is not judged against other bands, but it is judged in competition with itself. After the performance on the stage, the band will go to a room to sightread a couple pieces of music and get a score for that, also. After District, the band may compete on the state level which is also held at Troy State University.

FFA Christmas Party

The Elba FFA held their annual Christmas party on December 14, 1994. There were chips, cakes, cookies, and fudge at the party. It was held in Mr. Heaton's A room. The party was organized by President Bo Boyd, Vice-President Charles Bozeman, Secretary Melissa Hall, Reporter Heather Dubose, and Sentinel Trey Lawless. We would like to thank Mr. Heaton for allowing the FFA to have such a great party.

FHA Celebrates Holidays

by Angie Daniels

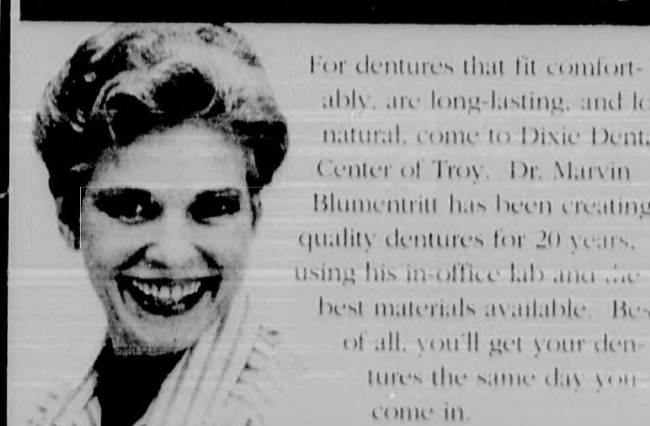

In honor of the holidays, FHA members contributed food for food baskets to share with a family for Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners. FHA members also enjoyed the club's traditional Christmas party Wednesday, December 7. Approximately 150 students were served sausage balls, chex mix, and red velvet cake. The refreshments had been prepared by the students from the Parenting Class. On December 10, 1994, FHA members participated in the Christmas Festival by having a booth of items for sale as a money-making project for the organization. FHA officers also decorated a float for the 1994 Christmas parade. Each officer would like to wish everyone a Happy New Year!

THE PRESSBOX

By Ricky Mulaz, Sports Editor

Happy New Year...Bah, humbug! 1995 didn't exactly come in with a bang for the Mulaz family, as we had one member of the family in the hospital for seven of the new year's first eight days. Kathy went in on Dec. 31 with apparent kidney stones and stayed for a total of six days being treated for a variety of ailments. Last Saturday Melissa went to get on a horse and when she pulled up, the saddle went down, along with her. The fall broke both bones in her right arm and required surgery in Dothan, which kept us in the hospital two more days. Kathy and Melissa are both back at home, but Kathy will be on medication and making visits to doctors' offices for weeks to come, and Melissa will have to wear her shoulder-to-wrist cast for at least six to eight weeks. I don't know about y'all, but 1995 came in and tried to deliver a quick knock-out punch to the Mulaz family!

ELBA SCHEDULE MAKER HAD SADISTIC MIND

The Elba Tigers played the first three games of their six-game road swing last week and claimed one win, while coming close in another, and getting blown out in the third. The three games in one week were bad enough, but when all three were on the road, and were simply the first of six straight on the road, it makes it look even tougher for the 2-4 Tigers.

Elba was more than a little rusty offensively against New Brockton and it was the Tigers' inability to put the ball in the hoop that led to the narrow defeat. Elba played one of its best games of the season on the defensive end of the court, but simply couldn't get into any kind of rhythm on the offensive end, and lost in the low-scoring battle.

The Tigers got off to a slow start against Kingston, but came to life in the second quarter and pulled away for a very impressive win over an arch-rival. Elba used its quickness on defense to give the Bulldogs fits, and the offense began to find its range both inside and out. It was the best game of the season and was expected to give the Tigers a lift.

If the win over Kingston gave the Tigers a lift, Brantley wasted little time in dropping the Tigers back down to earth as the Bulldogs clobbered Elba by twenty-nine points. Elba was down 10-0 before it could get on the scoreboard, and was never in the game against a Brantley team that had been struggling. The loss was definitely the flip-side of the Kingston performance of the night before.

The busy week of action left the Tigers at 2-4, and that really isn't all that bad for a team with the inexperience of the Tigers. The loss to New Brockton was one that could have easily been a win, while the other losses came to 6A Enterprise, 6A Ozark and 2A Brantley, three teams that are all having big years. If Elba's young players will learn as they go and settle into a highly routine, the wins will come and the Tigers could get a team to watch!

AREA TEAMS HAVE MIXED RESULTS ON COURT

The high school basketball season got back into full swing last week and it was another up and down week for area teams, as only New Brockton was able to escape the week without a loss. Here's a quick look back...

*NEW BROCKTON (9-3) claimed big wins over Elba and Straughn and got leading scorer Chris Flowers back in the process, making it a mighty good week for the Gamecocks. The win over Straughn was a big one after losing to the Tigers in the SEAC tourney, and it looks like the real Gamecocks are just about ready to make their appearance.

*BRANTLEY (8-4) dropped a double-overtime decision to Clayton, but then bounced back to clobber Highland Home and Elba, and could also be ready to hit full speed. The Bulldogs looked like a team trying to find its identity during the holidays, however, last week it looked like the Bulldogs may have finally begun to find themselves.

*KINSTON (5-9) continued to struggle and it now appears that unless the Bulldogs find the way to success real soon, it may be too late for '95. Kingston has rights that it plays up to its potential and on those nights the Bulldogs are very competitive, while on other nights the effort seems to be missing. The time is now for the Bulldogs to grow some teeth.

*ZION CHAPEL (1-7) has long since grown tired of moral victories and last week was really frustrated after dropping two close decisions. The Rebels can, and do, play well against all their opponents. The problem is that they can't get over the hump and keep losing close games. Forget potential, the time is now for the Rebels to take that next step and start winning big.

CLOSING THE BOOK ON THE BOWLS, AND THE SEASON

I watched some of the bowl games on over the New Year's holiday and guess that the highlight was Nebraska's come-from-behind win over Miami, in Miami's own Orange Bowl Stadium. The Hurricanes had been blowing a lot of hot air about how they owned their own field, but fell flat late against the Cornhuskers and once again proved that the magic is gone. Everyone knew the 'Canes couldn't win on the road in a bowl game, and now they have lost at home. Ain't it a shame!

Alabama made more mistakes than it had all season combined and still managed to beat Ohio State down in the Citrus Bowl. Sherman Williams probably moved himself up several rounds in the NFL draft with his fantastic performance, and was even compared to Emmitt Smith by some announcers, which should earn him some big bucks. Jay Barker lost some of his glamor in the win, but will still get drafted, although not nearly as high as before his last two games. The bowl win was a perfect ending to an almost perfect season, and the late score was simply the seniors way of saying so long.

A playoff? Who needs it, and how successful would it be, anyway? The Penn State fans are still yelling about the need for a playoff in Division I football; however, unless the colleges cut their schedules back to nine or ten games, such a system simply could not work. Cut back the schedules and the cost the colleges a couple of million dollars and locally it would cost the SEC even more money, not to mention the SEC championship. The solution? There's not one, because if Alabama had beaten Florida there would have been possibly three unbeaten teams, and three teams can't play in one "winner take all" game. If the Rose Bowl will get off its high self horse and join the bowl coalition, the top two teams would meet annually, anyway. Yea, but how about #3?

Recreation boosters sought

The Elba Department of Parks and Recreation has announced plans to create a "Recreation Boosters" organization to help the department overcome the high cost of equipment and recent budget restrictions.

"The Recreation Department has been the sole sponsor for all youth sports for many years," stated Recreation Director Ricky Mulaz, "and in recent years the high cost of equipment, uniforms and insurance has increased drastically. This year we are operating under a greatly reduced budget, and in an attempt to insure the programs offered to our youth will remain stable, we have decided to seek out area businesses and individuals that might wish to become a recreation booster."

A "Recreation Booster" will have their name imprinted on the sleeve of a team in either basketball, baseball or softball, and receive a certificate designating them as a booster. The cost of sponsoring a team as a "Booster" is $50 per team, and the booster may choose in which sport they wish to sponsor a team.

Checks may be mailed to: Elba Parks and Recreation, 200 Buford Street, Elba, Alabama, 36323, and should be made out to Elba Recreation Dept. - Booster Fund.

All-American honors continue to mount for Elba's McKinnon

Six members of the University of North Alabama's 1994 national championship football team have been named to the 1994 College Sports Information Directors of America's NCAA Division II All-American football team.

Junior linebacker Ronald McKinnon, of Elba, headed the list of Lions on the honored squad, and marked the fifth All-American team on which McKinnon has been named to the first team.

McKinnon, along with New Haven running back Roger Graham and South Dakota State offensive tackle Adam Timmerman, were the only repeat first-team selections from 1993, with McKinnon ranking as the top vote getter at his position.

The Lions have now had 30 different players selected first or second team All-American, with McKinnon, James Davis and Tyrone Rush being the only three to have been named first-team All-American in two different seasons.

Other Lions named to the All-American list were Marcus Keyes, of Taylorsville, Miss.; Jon Thompson, of Muscle Shoals, Ala.; Keith Humphrey, of Huntsville, Ala.; Kim Taylor, of Eclectic, Ala.; and Marcus Hunter, of Moundville, Ala.

Elba's Ronald McKinnon was named to his fifth All-American team last week.

"And I hope that is why the State of Alabama afforded us this law so small organizations can put on events without liability."

Due to the fact that the group has an event scheduled for Saturday, they requested immediate answer from the commission.

After several minutes of discussion, Commissioner Bernest Brooks made a motion that was seconded by Commissioner Bill Faulk to allow the team penning group to be exempted from the liability insurance requirement.

Faulk commented that since the state legislature passed a law to cover this particular situation, he felt that the commissioners should approve Tatum's request.

In a 5 to 1 vote, the commission agreed to waive the requirement of the team penning association to furnish liability insurance. Not wanting to go against county policy, Commissioner Chairman Lawrence Creel abstained.

The commissioners will further study the situation and asked that the group continue to seek prices for liability insurance policies covering these type events; even though, the state law is in place exempting them of liability.

Coffee County Sheriff-elect Ben Moates came before the commissioners requesting their approval on a grant request.

The grant application for the funding of an additional deputy sheriff through President Clinton's Crime Bill has to be submitted by January 15th in order to be considered.

Presently, the sheriff's department has one chief deputy, two investigators and five deputies whose responsibilities are to patrol, investigate and serve warrants and/or other legal papers.

Since June '94 deputies have answered 579 calls or complaints. In 1993, they served more than 18,000 legal documents and served in excess of 5,000 arrest warrants.

Moates noted that an additional deputy is badly needed at this time. The salary of the deputy would be approximately $20,000. Should the 3-year grant be received, 25% of the deputy's salary would be paid with funds received the first year. The second year, 50% of his salary would be funded through the grant while 75% would be paid in the third year of the grant. After the third year, the county would be responsible for the entire salary should he be retained.

The commissioners agreed to proceed with the grant application while continuing to seek additional information as to what the grant will actually do.

County Engineer Mark Pool requested and received authorization to draft a proposed change to the county's sub-division regulations concerning "Private Road Subdivisions." He will submit the proposed change after it is written to the commissioners for their approval or disapproval.

In other matters of business, the commissioners took the following action:

***Awarded the bid for herbicide to Bradshaw Pest Control of Elba. Their bid was $474.91 per 3 pound container of Aout and $476.85 of a 2-1/2 gallon container of Arsenal. They were low bidder after the 3% additional costs added for local businesses was applied.

***Accepted the low bid of $67,234.00 on a rubber tire loader from Thompson Tractor Company of Dothan.

***Approved credit for landfill use to Bobby Sims, a roofing contractor in Elba, and Pathway Inc. of New Brockton.

***Approved a request by the City of Enterprise to have the county engineers to inspect their bridges. All bridges over 20 feet in length have to be inspected and certified every two years. This is a requirement of the state highway department.

***Voted to send out bid requests for a pan (earth moving equipment) to be used at the county landfill. Pool pointed out that this piece of equipment is already in the FY 95 budget.

Homecoming will be held at New Brockton Saturday night, January 14. Activities will begin at 6:00 p.m. in the gym. The basketball game will begin at 7:00. New Brockton will play Southern Normal.

Former basketball players and cheerleaders who attended New Brockton High School are urged to attend.

handicapped, was nearing completion and should be finished well before March. This is when an inspection team will be in to inspect the town's facilities.

Council members were advised that a grant application was being submitted for sewer work to be done on Tyler Street and along U.S. Hwy. 94. The funds, should they be received, will be in excess of $300,000.

Councilman Charles Cole presented council members with several requirements and recommendations concerning the police department and received approval on all of them.

He asked that 4 pursuit tires be purchased for police car #2 at a cost of $244.36; new uniforms (1 pair of pants & 2 shirts) for five officers at a cost of $83 each; recommended that Elliot King be hired temporarily while full-time officers are in the academy; and that Officer Darrell Griswold's salary be increased from $5.32 to $5.38 per hour.

Councilman Robert Miles voiced his opposition in the hiring of King stating that he felt that reserve officers should be given first opportunity at the job.

Prior to adjourning, Mayor Holley expressed her concern that the town has no ordinance dealing with the permitting or allowing of parades and/or marches within the town limits. Other council members shared her concern.

The mayor stated that she would research the matter with the League of Municipalities and return a recommendation to the council.

Other matters addressed by the council were as follows:
***Re-appointed Dorothy Flowers and Doug Smith to the Zoning Board of Adjustments.

***Signed statement of intent concerning the "Safety Discount Commitment" as recommended by the provider of the town's workman's compensation.

***Mayor informed council members of a meeting to be held at the state highway department in Troy on Jan. 12 at 5:00 p.m. The meeting will deal with the needs of the town from the highway department during the next 20 years.

***Approved the purchase of animal traps and bait for street department employees. Also approval was given to purchase new street signs as required.

training classes for towns' elected officials to be held in Montgomery on February 18. The cost will be $50 per person.

***The Elba City School Board met Thursday, January 12th and received good news and bad news.

The bad news was not entirely unexpected as rumors have been floating around about the pending retirement of long time Athletic Director and highly successful football coach Mack Wood, who has led the program for the past 18 years. The school board accepted his request for retirement effective March 31st. No replacement has been named, however Superintendent Charles Pearce agreed with board members who said they need to hire the best qualified school teacher who was also a well qualified football coach.

In his official letter to the school board, Wood expressed his thanks to the hundreds of players who paid the price and competed; the coaches who have been loyal and dedicated and worked hard in hand to make a winning program; the Elba faculty and administration who have been very supportive; the many parents and guardians who have been supportive and understanding; the various media people who have kept the

Elba Tiger fans everywhere who loyally supported the program for the past 18 seasons.

The board named Assistant Principal David Stokes as high school principal, replacing Charles Clark, who retired December 31st. Stokes had been acting in the position since Clark's retirement. Pearce made the recommendation and it was endorsed unanimously.

The board approved a request by the Elba City Council met in special session Thursday evening, January 12th.

Mayor Ricky Haywood reviewed again the dealings with the engineering firm working for the past two years to secure a license to operate a trash dump on city owned property.

Haywood reported bills for $19,484.19 and $2,360 had already been paid and he has another bill from the firm for $17,626.50 that is awaiting payment. The mayor noted Elba still doesn't have the state permit to dispose of the limbs and no one can give an estimate of how much longer it will take.

He added that he questioned the validity of the contract because a check of past minutes failed to produce written evidence that the contract with the firm was ever ratified by the city council. Haywood said the contract had been signed by the former mayor and city clerk, but they have been unable to find it.

Rep. Garrett Moore draws four committee assignments

Coffee County Representative Garrett Moore said Tuesday that he has been named to four committees in the Alabama House of Representatives.

The Republican in a Democrat dominated House will serve on the Commerce Transportation and Utilities (CTU), Industrial Development, Local Government and Local Legislation #1.

Moore noted he had campaigned hard for both the CTU and the Industrial Development committees, was grateful for the appointments and was looking forward to serving the people of Coffee County.

Byrd joins Montgomery Sheriff's Department

Elba Police Officer Donnie Byrd began his career in law enforcement nine years ago.

He went to work as a patrolman at the age of 20 and was one of the youngest to ever work for the department.

Byrd joined the force in December of 1985 and attended an eight-week training course at the Montgomery Police Academy in 1986.

In 1989, he was promoted to investigator and one year later, 1990, he became a member of the 12th Judicial Drug Task Force. He was the Elba Police Department's representative on the drug unit.

"I've seen some of it all - happiness, sadness, and even death in all type ways," said Byrd. "You don't have to work in the big city to see that."

"I'll miss the camaraderie that exists between the members of the Elba Police Department," he said. "I've made some lasting friendships that I'll certainly miss a lot!"

Byrd will be joining the Montgomery County Sheriff's Department as a deputy in the criminal division.

His primary duties will be to patrol the county and assist other law enforcement agencies within the cities and towns located in Montgomery County.

Byrd was one of five selected from 200-300 applicants for the job as deputy with the sheriff's department. The department employs more than 400 persons.

"They're getting a good man," said Elba Police Chief Jack Parker. "He will be sorely missed by our department. His professionalism and expertise was an asset to our department."

When asked why he had decided to leave Elba, Byrd's response was, "It's a career move. I hope to advance in my new job and hopefully move into investigation with the sheriff's department."

One of Byrd's most memorable experiences occurred in October of 1993.

During a chase and capture of a kidnapping suspect, he was one of many officers shot at during the incident.

Circuit Judge, District Judge and Sheriff assume duties

by Marvin McLwain
Editor

Patience, patience, patience was the watchword of the day as two new judges took their oath of office. The courtroom in the Elba Courthouse was filled to capacity Sunday afternoon as relatives, friends and other public officials attended the investiture of Thomas E. Head, III and Steven E. Blair.

Head was sworn in as Circuit Judge of the 12th Judicial Circuit and Blair took the oath-of-office as Coffee County's District Judge.

NEW COUNTY SHERIFF...Coffee County Sheriff Ben Moates (left) is sworn into office by Circuit Judge Tom Head. The new sheriff's wife, Cathy, looks on as the oath-of-office is administered.

Presiding over the investiture was the Senior Judge of the 12th Judicial Circuit, Gary L. McAliley. The ceremony was dedicated to the memory, and in honor, of the late Judge Eris Paul.

Prior to administering the oath-of-office to the two men, Judge McAliley read the Ten Commandments for New Judges.

"When I was first elected as judge eighteen years ago, then Circuit Judge Eris F. Paul gave me a copy of the following," said McAliley. "I pass it along and hope it has as much meaning for you during your judicial career as it has had for me."

They are:
• Be kind...If Judges could possess only one attribute, it should be to have a kind and understanding heart.
• Be patient...patient...patient!
• Possess an appreciation of the great prestige of the judicial office and of the respect which is accorded it and its occupant.
• Don't take yourself too seriously.

Remember that a lazy judge is a poor one. If done right, being a good judge takes a lot of study and very hard work!
• Don't be dismayed when reversed - learn from it.

There are no unimportant cases. To each litigant, his or her case is the most important one.

Use wisdom in sentencing. Judge each case on its own merits and impose the sentence accordingly.
• Don't forget your common sense.

Pray for divine guidance. Judges, more than anyone else, need this help and direction.
The new judges were told that they, along with ALL judges, are to be the guardians over an individual's life, liberty and property.

"It is essential that we elect judges who are fair and judges who are impartial to everyone regardless of whether they are rich or poor, regardless of their color, regardless of their race, social status, regardless of who they may be," said McAliley.

"We know that when a judge ceases to be fair and impartial, instead of being our guardian, that judge becomes our threat."

Judge McAliley reminded the large crowd the real reason for the ceremony was not to celebrate a person or persons, but to celebrate a system that gives everyone a chance of equal justice.

Christy Goldsmith, a former Enterprise police officer, described Judge Head as a true professional with superb technical skills, impeccable ethics, unquestionable morals, and a sincere compassion for others.

Judge Blair's brother, Rick Blair, said, "Steve has always cared about others - that's the reason he ran for

Elba's Coach Mack Wood resigns

by Ferrin Cox

The Elba City School Board met Thursday, January 12th and received good news and bad news.

The bad news was not entirely unexpected as rumors have been floating around about the pending retirement of long time Athletic Director and highly successful football coach Mack Wood, who has led the program for the past 18 years. The school board accepted his request for retirement effective March 31st. No replacement has been named, however Superintendent Charles Pearce agreed with board members who said they need to hire the best qualified school teacher who was also a well qualified football coach.

In his official letter to the school board, Wood expressed his thanks to the hundreds of players who paid the price and competed; the coaches who have been loyal and dedicated and worked hard in hand to make a winning program; the Elba faculty and administration who have been very supportive; the many parents and guardians who have been supportive and understanding; the various media people who have kept the

Elba Tiger fans everywhere who loyally supported the program for the past 18 seasons.

The board named Assistant Principal David Stokes as high school principal, replacing Charles Clark, who retired December 31st. Stokes had been acting in the position since Clark's retirement. Pearce made the recommendation and it was endorsed unanimously.

The board approved a request by the Elba City Council met in special session Thursday evening, January 12th.

Mayor Ricky Haywood reviewed again the dealings with the engineering firm working for the past two years to secure a license to operate a trash dump on city owned property.

Haywood reported bills for $19,484.19 and $2,360 had already been paid and he has another bill from the firm for $17,626.50 that is awaiting payment. The mayor noted Elba still doesn't have the state permit to dispose of the limbs and no one can give an estimate of how much longer it will take.

He added that he questioned the validity of the contract because a check of past minutes failed to produce written evidence that the contract with the firm was ever ratified by the city council. Haywood said the contract had been signed by the former mayor and city clerk, but they have been unable to find it.

Rep. Garrett Moore draws four committee assignments

Coffee County Representative Garrett Moore said Tuesday that he has been named to four committees in the Alabama House of Representatives.

The Republican in a Democrat dominated House will serve on the Commerce Transportation and Utilities (CTU), Industrial Development, Local Government and Local Legislation #1.

Moore noted he had campaigned hard for both the CTU and the Industrial Development committees, was grateful for the appointments and was looking forward to serving the people of Coffee County.

ACTIVITY PROFESSIONALS WEEK...National Activity Professionals Week is January 22nd through January 28th. Each year, nursing home residents, staff, friends and family salute activity professionals all over the United States, Canada and Bermuda for the important job that they do each day. Activity professionals coordinate the pursuit of physical, spiritual, social, intellectual, community and leisure activities in long-term care facilities, retirement housing, adult day care programs and senior centers. As our population grows older, their role as a part of the long-term care team is becoming more and more vital. Activity professionals can mean the difference between a person living life to its fullest and simply giving up. Pictured above are the members of the activities staff at Elba General Nursing Home. They are (l-r): front row - Brent Cunningham, Alesha Nunn and Glennie Parker; back row - Juanita Flowers, Pearl Hodge, Linda Blair and Janet Hobbs.

Byrd joins Montgomery Sheriff's Department

by Marvin McLwain
Editor

Elba Police Officer Donnie Byrd began his career in law enforcement nine years ago.

He went to work as a patrolman at the age of 20 and was one of the youngest to ever work for the department.

Byrd joined the force in December of 1985 and attended an eight-week training course at the Montgomery Police Academy in 1986.

In 1989, he was promoted to investigator and one year later, 1990, he became a member of the 12th Judicial Drug Task Force. He was the Elba Police Department's representative on the drug unit.

"I've seen some of it all - happiness, sadness, and even death in all type ways," said Byrd. "You don't have to work in the big city to see that."

"I'll miss the camaraderie that exists between the members of the Elba Police Department," he said. "I've made some lasting friendships that I'll certainly miss a lot!"

Byrd will be joining the Montgomery County Sheriff's Department as a deputy in the criminal division.

His primary duties will be to patrol the county and assist other law enforcement agencies within the cities and towns located in Montgomery County.

Byrd was one of five selected from 200-300 applicants for the job as deputy with the sheriff's department. The department employs more than 400 persons.

"They're getting a good man," said Elba Police Chief Jack Parker. "He will be sorely missed by our department. His professionalism and expertise was an asset to our department."

When asked why he had decided to leave Elba, Byrd's response was, "It's a career move. I hope to advance in my new job and hopefully move into investigation with the sheriff's department."

One of Byrd's most memorable experiences occurred in October of 1993.

During a chase and capture of a kidnapping suspect, he was one of many officers shot at during the incident.

A bullet fired from the suspect's weapon penetrated the windshield of Byrd's patrol unit missing his head by less than 2 inches.

"That near miss made me realize just how important some of the things we take for granted everyday really are," Byrd said.

Officer Byrd's last day with the Elba Police Department was Friday.

Good luck Donnie and remember to be careful out there!
